Discover an extraordinary three-bedroom apartment within a luxury residential complex located in the heart of central Limassol, nestled in a privileged and quiet neighborhood just half a kilometer from the beachfront. The impressive eight-story building is thoughtfully designed, surrounded by beautifully landscaped gardens at the center of the project. Drawing inspiration from both natural and architectural elements, the design evokes the elegance of a superyacht, with each block gently cascading down from its highest point and featuring balconies on every side. Wide horizontal bands create continuous balustrades that wrap around each level, accentuating the horizontal flow of the development, which extends over 300 linear meters. The apartment features elegant parquet flooring and
